Who we are...

Fort Bragg Army Community Service (ACS) has an initiative called the Airborne Attic. The purpose of the Airborne Attic is to provide support for Soldiers and family members E4 and below with items of furniture, household goods and baby items/clothing free of charge. This is a program to help service our Soldiers and family members here at Fort Bragg when the need arises.

The Airborne Attic schedules pick-ups of large item donations the first Thursday of every month both on and off post. Call to schedule your large item donation pick-ups at 907-ATIC (2842).

Drop-off donations will be received on Tuesdays and Thursdays, 0900-1600.

Please do not drop off donation after duty hours.

Who can use it ...

The Airborne Attic is a free service available for Soldiers E-4 and below and their immediate family members. Soldiers E-5 and above will be allowed to use the Airborne Attic on an emergency basis with prior approval from the Relocation Readiness Manager.

How it works...

The Airborne Attic operates completely from donations. Clean, in good usable condition items have been generously donated to the Attic from the Soldiers and family members, businesses, organization, and the local community.

These items are inventoried and organized for distribution directly to Soldiers and family members in need of assistance.

Where to go...

The Airborne Attic is located on the corners of Ord and Letterman Streets, Building 8-7006-A.

Hours of Operation are:

0800 to 1630
