Fort Bragg Relocation Readiness Program 2012

Relocation Readiness Program (RRP)

Provides assistance to military personnel (active duty, retired, National Guard, Reserve), DoD civilians, and Family members moving to or from Fort Bragg. RRP provides information on most military installations regardless of branch. RRP provides a wide variety of information pertaining to settling in and pre-departure services. Make Relocation Readiness one of the first stops when you arrive. Our knowledgeable staff is there to answer your questions and refer you to the appropriate agencies.

Additional Services and Programs Include:

Information and Referral

Knowledgeable and friendly staff refers customers to the appropriate program or organization. For information on the go, stop in and pick up a copy of the Answers Unlimited, a must have booklet outlining post services.

International Readiness Program

Provides information and referral assistance for immigration related issues. The program serves as a liaison for clients in need of Immigration and Naturalization Services, Legal Assistance, obtaining a driver's license, English as a Second Language, Social Security Administration, and other community services and programs.

Hearts Apart Program

Assists and supports Families that are not able to PCS with the Soldier due to an unaccompanied tour or deployment. The Hearts Apart Program fosters a sense of community and links Families of deployed Soldiers with support agencies, programs, and units/FRGs. This program allows waiting Families to stay informed and in the loop by staying abreast of Army Community Programs and organizations that are designed to provide support.

Airborne Attic

The Airborne Attic operates completely from donations of clean, good, usable items. Donations are tax deductible. Soldiers E-4 and below can obtain household items free of charge.
