Youth Leadership Conference 2008

The Youth Leadership Conference is scheduled for June 24/25, 2008 at Albritton Junior High School on Fort Bragg. Issues and applications are now being accepted.

Day one is only open to Military Connected Teens. Participants will identify and discuss issues affecting the quality of life for military connected teens. Day two is open to Military Connected Teens and friends. Teens will participate in a series of workshops that will provide tools to assist them in dealing with a variety of relevant issues.

Register today! Applications are due June 10 (forms available at Tolson Youth Activities Center, Child and Youth Services, Albritton Junior High School, High School Guidance Offices and Cleland Skating Rink). For more information, call Fort Bragg School Liaison Services at 910-432-1008.

Do You Want To Volunteer With Children?

If you are interested in volunteering in Fort Bragg's Child Development Centers, you need to attend a training on March 27, 2008 from 9 AM to 1 PM. This training and opportunity is open to teens, ages 13-18. The training will be held at the Tolson Youth Activities Center. Fort Bragg Youth of the Year 2008

The Fort Bragg Youth of the Year will represent the Tolson Boys and Girls Club in the North Carolina Youth of the Year competition in the spring. Fort Bragg's representative will have an opportunity for a $10,000 scholarship. State winners will compete for the National Youth of the Year, which offers more scholarships and travel opportunities.

Completed packets must be returned at Tolson YAC by the close of business on February 15, 2008. Packets are available at Tolson Youth Activities Center. For more information, contact Annette Bennett or Charles Cofield at 396-KIDS.

Earn College Credit in High School

Thanks to the leadership of Gov. Mike Easley and the NC General Assembly, North Carolina public high school students can earn college credits through a special initiative called Learn & Earn Online.

Qualified students in participating public high schools can take a variety of online college-credit courses at no cost to them or to their families. Students earn both high school and college credit for completed courses. Access to these courses is provided during the regular school day and an online course facilitator will assist students in the classroom.

Courses are offered during fall and spring semesters through UNCG iSchool and the community colleges. For registration dates, please check with your guidance counselor.

Submit Your Issues!

Is there something you would like to see on Fort Bragg? Do you wish Fort Bragg would offer _____ for teens? Do you think you have an idea that would be great if you could only get Fort Bragg to buy into it?

Then this is your chance. The Youth Leadership Conference delegates will be reviewing your issues and recommendations and briefing them to the Garrison Commander. Changes and recommendations that Fort Bragg has implemented for teens in the past include: school renovations, movies for teens, and credit transfers from Albritton Junior High School. For more information or to submit an issue, contact School Liaison Services at 910-432-1008.
